UNFINISHED BUSINESS

18

S.B. No. 27—Correa et al.

An act relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 27, as passed by the Senate, amended the Political Reform Act of 1974 by revising the definition of a "contribution," imposing reporting requirements on multipurpose organizations, and requiring certain ballot measure and candidate committees to maintain an accurate list of their top 10 contributors, which the Fair Political Practices Commission would post on its Internet Web site, as specified.

The Assembly amendments revise the new definition of "contribution," and revise and recast the reporting requirements for multipurpose organizations.

The Assembly amendments authorize the Commission to require, by regulation, that where a committee is identified as a top 10 contributor to another committee, the recipient committee must additionally report the top 10 contributors of the donating committee.

The Assembly amendments require that a particular notification that the act requires a candidate or committee to send to a contributor within 2 weeks of a contribution of $5,000 or more also include a reference to the multipurpose organization reporting requirements. The amendments additionally require that the notification be sent within one week of a contribution of $10,000 or more received during the period in which late contribution reports must be filed.

The Assembly amendments declare that the act would take effect immediately as an urgency statute, but would delay the operative date of its provisions until July 1, 2014.

The Assembly amendments also make technical changes.

Vote: 27. Substantial substantive change: yes.

(Final vote in the Senate: AYES—28. NOES—8.)
